

HIGH SCHOOL ENGLISH TEACHER IN THE MIDDLE EAST

PURPOSE/GOAL OF JOB

Are you a passionate educator with a love for literature, a heart for teenagers, and a deep commitment to Christ? We're looking for a dedicated High School English Teacher to join our missional school in the Middle East, where you'll have the opportunity to inspire the next generation of leaders. If you thrive in a dynamic classroom, enjoy guiding students through the complexities of literature, and are excited to create a learning environment that fosters critical thinking and spiritual growth, this role is for you. We offer a comprehensive package, including flights, housing, local health insurance, a living stipend, and a USD salary deposited directly into your American bank account. Come be part of a community that values education, faith, and the transformational power of the gospel.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF POSITION

1. Teaching English & Literature
 - Deliver 20-25 English lessons per week, focusing on advanced reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills.
 - Guide students in analyzing and interpreting literary works, including novels, poetry, plays, and essays.
 - Teach critical thinking and analytical writing skills through discussions, essays, and research projects.
 - Utilize creative and engaging teaching methods to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation of literature.
 - Design lesson plans that challenge and support students of varying skill levels.
2. Classroom Management
 - Establish a structured, respectful, and engaging learning environment that encourages intellectual curiosity.
 - Set and enforce clear expectations to promote a positive and focused classroom atmosphere.
 - Encourage open discussions and debates to enhance students' communication and reasoning skills.
3. Collaboration & Professional Development
 - Work collaboratively with colleagues to develop cross-curricular connections and enhance instructional strategies.
 - Participate in faculty meetings, professional development sessions, and school-wide initiatives.
 - Stay updated on best practices in teaching English and literature by attending workshops and training programs.
 - Adapt lesson plans and teaching methods to meet the evolving needs of students.

4. Monitoring Student Progress

- Assess student comprehension and analytical skills through exams, essays, presentations, and discussions.
- Provide timely and constructive feedback to support student growth in writing and literary analysis.
- Maintain accurate records of student progress and communicate regularly with parents regarding academic performance.

5. Additional Responsibilities

- Supervise students during non-classroom activities, such as assemblies, lunch, or study hall, as needed.
- Support school events, extracurricular activities, and student initiatives.
- Perform other duties assigned by the administration to contribute to the overall success of the school.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelors in English or Education Required
- A passion for working with adolescents
- A deep love of Jesus Christ
