

SPANISH TEACHER IN THE MIDDLE EAST

PURPOSE/GOAL OF JOB

Are you a fluent Spanish speaker with a passion for teaching and a heart for cross-cultural impact? We're looking for a dedicated Spanish Teacher to join our missional school in the Middle East, where you'll have the opportunity to inspire students in a Muslim-majority community to develop language skills and cultural understanding. If you love designing immersive, interactive lessons that bring Spanish language and literature to life, and you're excited about fostering critical thinking and fluency in young minds, this role is for you. You'll work alongside a supportive team, engage in professional growth, and contribute to shaping globally-minded, confident leaders. We provide flights, housing, local health insurance, a living stipend, and a USD salary deposited directly into your American bank account. Join us in combining education, cultural exchange, and faith-driven purpose to make a lasting impact.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF POSITION

1. Teaching Spanish Language & Literature
 - Deliver 20-25 Spanish lessons per week, focusing on reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills.
 - Teach students to analyze and interpret Spanish-language literature, including novels, poetry, plays, and essays.
 - Foster critical thinking and analytical writing skills through discussions, essays, and research projects in Spanish.
 - Utilize immersive and interactive teaching methods to enhance language acquisition and cultural appreciation.
 - Design lesson plans that cater to varying proficiency levels, from beginner to advanced students.
2. Classroom Management
 - Establish a structured, respectful, and engaging learning environment that encourages language development.
 - Set and enforce clear expectations to promote active participation and a positive classroom atmosphere.
 - Encourage open discussions, debates, and conversational practice to strengthen students' fluency and confidence.
3. Collaboration & Professional Development
 - Work collaboratively with colleagues to develop interdisciplinary connections and enhance instructional strategies.
 - Participate in faculty meetings, professional development sessions, and school-wide initiatives.

- Stay updated on best practices in teaching Spanish language and literature by attending workshops and training programs.
 - Adapt lesson plans and teaching methods to meet the diverse needs of students.
4. Monitoring Student Progress
- Assess student proficiency through exams, oral presentations, essays, and interactive activities.
 - Provide timely and constructive feedback to support student growth in language skills and literary analysis.
 - Maintain accurate records of student progress and communicate regularly with parents regarding academic performance.
5. Additional Responsibilities
- Supervise students during non-classroom activities, such as assemblies, lunch, or study hall, as needed.
 - Support school events, extracurricular activities, and student-led Spanish language or cultural clubs.
 - Perform other duties assigned by the administration to contribute to the overall success of the school.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Fluency in English and Spanish
- Bachelors degree in Education or Spanish is preferred
- Experience working in teaching Spanish to teenagers is preferred
