

THIRD-CULTURE KID (TCK) CARE ASSOCIATE

PURPOSE/GOAL OF JOB

Do you have a heart for missionary kids and a passion for walking alongside families serving across the globe? As a Third Culture Kid (TCK) Care Associate based in Louisville, Kentucky, you'll play a vital role in nurturing, equipping, and advocating for the next generation of global workers. From planning meaningful debriefs and engaging training events to championing child safety and offering thoughtful, compassionate care, your work will directly support families on the front lines of ministry. You'll be part of a close-knit, prayer-focused team committed to seeing TCKs thrive—emotionally, spiritually, and culturally. This role isn't just about logistics and programming (though there's plenty of that!)—it's about listening deeply, building trust, and pointing families back to the faithfulness of God through every transition. If you're energized by kids, cross-cultural life, and the chance to make a global impact from right here in Louisville, we'd love to connect with you.
